Who Can Use Form 140A?

You can use Form 140A to file for 2013 if all of the following apply to you.

- You (and your spouse if married filing a joint return) are full year residents of Arizona.
- Your Arizona taxable income is less than $50,000, regardless of your filing status.
- You are not making any adjustments to income.
- You do not itemize deductions.
- The only tax credits you will claim are:
 - The family income tax credit
 - The property tax credit
 - The credit for increased excise taxes
- You are not claiming estimated tax payments.

NOTE: Do not use Form 140A if you are an active duty military member. You may subtract all of your active duty military pay included in your federal adjusted gross income, but you cannot do this on Form 140A. To take this subtraction, you must file your 2013 return using Form 140. For more information, see Form 140 instructions.

Do You Have to File?

Arizona Filing Requirements These rules apply to all Arizona taxpayers.
You must file if you are:	and your Arizona adjusted gross income is at least:	or your gross income is at least:
● Single	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Married filing joint	$11,000	$15,000
● Married filing separate	$ 5,500	$15,000
● Head of household	$ 5,500	$15,000

If you are an Arizona resident, you must report income from all sources. This includes out-of-state income.

To see if you have to file, figure your gross income the same as you would figure your gross income for federal income tax purposes. Then, you should exclude income Arizona law does not tax.

Income Arizona law does not tax includes the following.

- Interest from U.S. Government obligations
- Social security retirement benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act
- Benefits received under the Railroad Retirement Act
- Active duty military pay
- Pay received for active service as a reservist or a National Guard member

You can find your Arizona adjusted gross income on line 18 of Arizona Form 140A.

NOTE: Even if you do not have to file, you must still file a return to get a refund of any Arizona income tax withheld.

Do You Have to File if You Are an American Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all of the following apply to you.

- You are an enrolled member of an Indian tribe.
- You live on the reservation established for that tribe.
- You earned all of your income on that reservation.

Enrolled members of American Indian tribes that must file a return may subtract wages earned while living and working on their tribe's reservation. If you are eligible to subtract these wages, you must file Form 140. In this case, do not file Form 140A.

The department issued Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4 on the Arizona tax treatment of American Indians.

Do You Have to File if You Are the Spouse of an American Indian and You Are Not an Enrolled Indian?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements. The department issued Income Tax Ruling ITR 96-4 on the tax treatment of spouses of American Indians.

Do You Have to File if You Are in the Military?

You must file if you meet the Arizona filing requirements unless all the following apply to you.

- You are an active duty member of the United States armed forces.
- Your only income for the taxable year is pay received for active duty military service.
- There was no Arizona tax withheld from your active duty military pay.

If Arizona tax was withheld from your active duty military pay, you must file an Arizona income tax return to claim any refund you may be due from that withholding.

You must also file an Arizona income tax return if you have any other income besides pay received for active duty military service.

If you are an Arizona resident and you have to file an Arizona return, you should file using Form 140. If you were an Arizona resident when you entered the service, you remain an Arizona resident, no matter where stationed, until you establish a new domicile. As an Arizona resident, you must report all of your income, no matter where stationed. You must include your military pay, but using Form 140, you may subtract all pay received for active duty military service; to the extent it is included in your federal adjusted gross income.

If you are not an Arizona resident, but stationed in Arizona, the following applies to you.

- You are not subject to Arizona income tax on your military pay.
- You must report any other income you earn in Arizona. Use Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return, to report this income.

To find out more, see our brochure, Pub 704, Taxpayers in the Military.

Residency Status

If you are not sure if you are an Arizona resident for state income tax purposes, we may be able to help. The department issued Income Tax Procedure ITP 92-1 on determining residency status.

Residents

You are a resident of Arizona if your domicile is in Arizona. Domicile is the place where you have your permanent home.

It is where you intend to return if you are living or working temporarily in another state or country. If you leave Arizona for a temporary period, you are still an Arizona resident while gone. A resident is subject to tax on all income no matter where the resident earns the income.

Part-Year Residents

If you are a part-year resident, you must file Form 140PY, Part-Year Resident Personal Income Tax Return.

You are a part-year resident if you did either of the following during 2013.

- You moved into Arizona with the intent of becoming a resident.
- You moved out of Arizona with the intent of giving up your Arizona residency.

Nonresidents

If you are a nonresident, you must file Form 140NR, Nonresident Personal Income Tax Return.

What if a Taxpayer Died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 2013, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property.

If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund.

The person who files the return should use the form the taxpayer would have used. If the department mailed the taxpayer a booklet, do not use the label. The person who files the return should print the word "deceased" after the decedent's name in the address section of the form. Also, enter the date of death after the decedent's name.

If your spouse died in 2013 and you did not remarry in 2013, or if your spouse died in 2014 before filing a return for 2013, you may file a joint return. If your spouse died in 2013, the joint return should show your spouse's 2013 income before death and your income for all of 2013. If your spouse died in 2014, before filing the 2013 return, the joint return should show all of your income and all of your spouse's income for 2013. Print "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign the return.

Are Any Other Returns Required?

You may also have to file a fiduciary income tax return (Form 141AZ). For details about filing a fiduciary income tax return, call the department at (602) 255-3381.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund for a deceased taxpayer, you must complete Form 131, Claim for Refund on Behalf of Deceased Taxpayer. Attach this form to the front of the return.

What Are the Filing Dates and Penalties?

When Should You File?

Your 2013 calendar year tax return is due no later than midnight, April 15, 2014. File your return as soon as you can after January 1, but no later than April 15, 2014.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You may request an extension if you know you will not be able to file on time.

NOTE: An extension does not extend the time to pay your income tax. For details, see the instructions for Arizona Form 204.

To get a filing extension, you can either:

1. Apply for a state extension. To apply for a state extension, file Arizona Form 204 by April 15. See Form 204 for details. You do not have to attach a copy of the extension to your return when you file, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return. If you must make a payment, use Form 204, or visit www.aztaxes.gov to make an electronic payment.
2. You may use your federal extension (federal Form 4868). File your Arizona return by the same due date. You do not have to attach a copy of your federal extension to your Arizona return, but make sure that you check box 82F on page 1 of the return.

When Should You File if You Are a Nonresident Alien?

The due date for your Arizona return is not the same as the due date for your federal return. Your Arizona return is due by April 15 even though your federal return is due on June 15. If you want to file your Arizona return after April 15, you must ask for a filing extension. You must file this request by April 15. Arizona will allow up to a 6-month extension. This will allow you to file your return by October 15, 2014. See Form 204 for extension filing details.

If you have a federal 6-month extension, you can file your Arizona return under that extension. If you file using your federal extension, Arizona will also allow you an extra 6 months. Because we will allow only 6 months, the due date for your Arizona return is not the same as the due date for your federal return. In this case, your Arizona return will be due by October 15 even though your federal return will not be due until December 15. If you file your 2013 Arizona calendar year return after October 15, 2014, your return will be late.

If you are a fiscal year filer, your return is due on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of your fiscal year.

What if You File or Pay Late?

If you file or pay late, we will charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe. If the U.S. Post Office postmarks your 2013 calendar year return by April 15, 2014, your return will not be late. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to meet the "timely mailing as timely filed" rule.

Late Filing Penalty

If you file late, we will charge you a late filing penalty. This penalty is 4½% (.045) of the tax required to be shown on the return for each month or fraction of a month the return is late. This penalty cannot exceed 25% (.25) of the tax found to be remaining due.

Late Payment Penalty

If you pay your tax late, we will charge you a late payment penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1% (.005) of the amount shown as tax for each month or fraction of a month for which the failure continues. We charge this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed a total of 10% (.10) of the unpaid tax.

Extension Underpayment Penalty

If you file your return under an extension, you must pay 90% (.90) of the tax shown on your return by the return's original due date. If you do not pay this amount, we may charge you a penalty. This penalty is ½ of 1% (.005) of the tax not paid for each 30-day period or fraction of a 30-day period. We charge this penalty from the original due date of the return until the date you pay the tax. This penalty cannot exceed 25% (.25) of the unpaid tax. If we charge you the extension underpayment penalty, we will not charge you the late payment penalty under Arizona Revised Statutes (A.R.S.) § 42-1125(D).

NOTE: If you are subject to two or more of the listed penalties, the total cannot exceed 25% of the unpaid tax.

Interest

We charge interest on any tax not paid by the due date. We will charge you interest even if you have an extension. If you have an extension, we will charge you interest from the original due date until the date you pay the tax. The Arizona interest rate is the same as the federal rate.

When Should You Amend a Return?

If you need to make changes to your return after you have filed, you should file Form 140X, Individual Amended Income Tax Return. You should file your amended return after your original return has processed. Do not file a new return for the year you are correcting. Generally, you have four years to amend a return to claim a refund.

If you amend your federal return for any year, you must also file an Arizona Form 140X for that year. You must file Form 140X within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS.

If the IRS makes a change to your federal taxable income for any year, you must report that change to Arizona. You may use one of the following two options to report this change.

Option 1

You may file a Form 140X for that year. If you choose this option, you must amend your Arizona return within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. Attach a complete copy of the federal notice to your Form 140X.

Option 2

You may file a copy of the final federal notice with the department within 90 days of the final determination of the IRS. If you choose this option, you must include a statement in which you must:

1. Request that the department recompute your tax; and
2. Indicate if you agree or disagree with the federal notice.

If you do not agree with the federal notice, you must also include any documents that show why you do not agree.

If you choose option 2, mail the federal notice and any other documents to:

Tips for Preparing Your Return

- Make sure that you write your SSN on your return.
- Complete your return using black ink.
- You must round dollar amounts to the nearest whole dollar. If 50 cents or more, round up to the next dollar; if less than 50 cents, round down. Do not enter cents.
- You must complete your federal return before you can start your Arizona return.
- Make sure you include your daytime telephone number.

Entering Your Name, Address, and SSN

Lines 1, 2, and 3 -

NOTE: Make sure that you write your SSN on the appropriate line.

If your booklet has a peel-off label, use that label if all the information is correct. If any of the information on the label is incorrect, do not use the label. Attach the label after you finish your return. If you do not have a peel-off label, print or type your name, address, and SSN in the space provided.

If you are filing a joint return, enter your SSNs in the same order as your names. If your name appears first on the return, make sure your SSN is the first number listed.

If you are married filing separately, enter your name and SSN on the first line 1. Enter your spouse's name and SSN on the second line 1.

If you are a nonresident of the United States or a resident alien who does not have an SSN, use the taxpayer identification number (ITIN) the IRS issued to you.

NOTE: Make sure your SSN is correct. If you are filing a joint return, also make sure you list your SSNs in the same order every year.

Make sure that you enter your SSN on your return. Make sure that all SSNs are clear and correct. You may be subject to a penalty if you fail to include your SSN. It will take longer to process your return if SSNs are missing, incorrect, or unclear.

For a deceased taxpayer, see page 2 of these instructions.

Use your current home address. The department will send your refund or correspond with you at that address.

Foreign Addresses

If you have a foreign address, enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Last Name(s) Used in Prior Years

If the last name that you or your spouse are using on this return is not the same as the last name you used on returns filed for the last 4 years, enter any other last name(s) that you or your spouse used when filing your return during the last 4 years.

ID Numbers for Paid Preparers

If you pay someone else to prepare your return, that person must also include an identification number where requested.

A paid preparer may use any of the following.

- his or her PTIN
- his or her SSN
- the EIN for the business

A paid preparer who fails to include the proper identification numbers may also be subject to a penalty.

Determining Your Filing Status

The filing status that you use on your Arizona return may be different from that used on your federal return.

Use this section to determine your filing status. Check the correct box (4 through 7) on the front of Form 140A.

Line 4 Box - Married Filing Joint Return

If you are married and filing a joint return, check box 4.

You may file a joint return if you were married as of December 31, 2013. It does not matter whether or not you were living with your spouse. You may file a joint return, even if you and your spouse filed separate federal returns.

You may file a joint return if your spouse died during 2013 and you did not remarry in 2013. See page 2 of these instructions for details.

The Arizona Form 140A is for full year residents only. You may not file a joint Arizona income tax return on Form 140A if any of the following apply.

1. Your spouse is a nonresident alien (citizen of and living in another country).
2. Your spouse is a resident of another state.
3. Your spouse is a part-year Arizona resident.

If filing a joint return with your nonresident spouse, you must file a joint return using Form 140NR. See Form 140NR instructions.

If filing a joint return with your part-year resident spouse, you must file a joint return using Form 140PY. See Form 140PY instructions.

The department issued Income Tax Ruling ITR 95-2 on filing a joint return with your part-year resident or nonresident spouse.

Line 5 Box - Head of Household

If you are filing as a head of household, check box 5.

You may file as head of household on your Arizona return, only if one of the following applies.

- You qualify to file as head of household on your federal return.
- You qualify to file as a qualifying widow or widower on your federal return.

Line 6 Box - Married Filing Separate Return

If you are filing a separate return, check box 6 and enter your spouse's name and SSN on the second line 1.

If you were married as of December 31, 2013, you may choose to file a separate return. You may file a separate return, even if you and your spouse filed a joint federal return.

Arizona is a community property state. If you file a separate return, you must figure how much income to report using community property laws. Under these laws, a separate return must reflect one-half of the community income from all sources plus any separate income.

When you file separate returns, you must account for community deductions and credits on the same basis as community income. Both you and your spouse must either itemize or not itemize. If one of you itemizes, you both must itemize. If one of you takes a standard deduction, you both must take a standard deduction. One of you may not claim a standard deduction while the other itemizes.

If you and your spouse support a dependent child from community income, either you or your spouse may claim the dependent. Both of you cannot claim the same dependent on both returns.

The department issued Income Tax Rulings ITR 93-18 and ITR 93-19 on filing a separate return.

NOTE: In some cases, you may treat community income as separate income. The department has issued a ruling (ITR 93-22) on when you may treat community income as separate income.

If one spouse is a resident and the other spouse is not, other special rules may apply when filing a separate return. The department issued Income Tax Ruling ITR 93-20 on how to report income in this case.

Line 7 Box - Single

If you are filing as single, check box 7.

Use this filing status if you were single on December 31, 2013. You are single if any of the following apply to you.

- You have never been married.
- You are legally separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance.
- You were widowed before January 1, 2013, and you did not remarry in 2013, and you do not qualify to file as a qualifying widow or widower with dependent children on your federal return.

Exemptions

Write the number of exemptions you are claiming in boxes 8, 9, 10, and 11. Do not put a check mark. You may lose the exemption if you put a checkmark in these boxes. You may lose the dependent exemption if you do not complete Part A, lines A1 through A3b, on page 2. You may lose the exemption for qualifying parents or grandparents if you do not complete Part A, lines A4 and A5, on page 2.

Line 8 Box - Age 65 and Over

Write "1" in box 8 if you or your spouse were 65 or older in 2013. Write "2" in box 8 if both you and your spouse were 65 or older in 2013.

Line 9 Box - Blind

Write "1" in box 9 if you or your spouse is totally or partially blind. Write "2" in box 9 if both you and your spouse are totally or partially blind.

1. You cannot see better than 20/200 in your better eye with glasses or contact lenses or

You must keep the statement for your records.

Line 10 Box - Dependents

You must complete Part A, lines A1 through A3b, on page 2 of your return before you can total your dependent exemptions.

You may claim only the following as a dependent.

- A person that qualifies as your dependent on your federal return.

NOTE: If you do not claim a dependent exemption for a student on your federal return in order to allow the student to claim a federal education credit on the student's federal return, you may still claim the exemption on your Arizona return. For more information, see Arizona Individual Income Tax Ruling ITR 05-02 at www.azdor.gov.

- A person who is age 65 or over (related to you or not) that does not qualify as your dependent on your federal return, but one of the following applies.
 1. In 2013, you paid more than one-fourth of the cost of keeping this person in an Arizona nursing care institution, an Arizona residential care institution, or an Arizona assisted living facility. Your cost must be more than $800.
 2. In 2013, you paid more than $800 for either Arizona home health care or other medical costs for the person.

Married filing joint (Box 4) and claiming no dependents (Box 10)	$4,200

If the husband and wife file separate returns, either spouse may take the entire $4,200 exemption, or the spouses may divide the $4,200 between them. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $2,100. If you and your spouse do not complete Form 202, you may take an exemption of only $2,100 (one-half of the total $4,200).

A married couple who claims at least one dependent may take one personal exemption of $6,300. If the husband and wife file separate returns, either spouse may take the entire $6,300 exemption, or the spouses may divide the $6,300 between them. You and your spouse must complete Form 202 if either you or your spouse claim a personal exemption of more than $3,150. If you and your spouse do not complete Form 202, you may take an exemption of only $3,150 (one-half of the total $6,300).

The spouse who claims more than one-half of the total personal exemption must attach the original Form 202 to his or her return. The spouse who claims less than one-half of the total personal exemption must attach a copy of the completed Form 202 to his or her return.

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete the direct deposit line if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 44 into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

NOTE: Check the box on line 44A if the direct deposit will ultimately be placed in a foreign account. If you check box 44A, do not enter your routing or account numbers. If this box is checked, we will not direct deposit your refund. We will send you a check instead.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You will get your refund fast – even faster if you e-file!
- Payment is more secure since there is no check to get lost.
- It is more convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less to process than a check.

NOTE: We are not responsible for a lost refund if you enter the wrong account information. Check with your financial institution to get the correct routing and account numbers and to make sure your direct deposit will be accepted.

Routing Number

MAKE SURE YOU ENTER THE CORRECT ROUTING NUMBER.

To make an electronic payment, go to www.aztaxes.gov and click on the "Make a Payment" link. The "E-Check" option in the "Payment Method" drop-down box will debit the amount from the checking or savings account that you specify. If you make an electronic payment from your checking or savings account, you will receive a confirmation number. Please keep this confirmation number as proof of payment.

Credit card payment

You can pay with your Discover, MasterCard, Visa, or American Express credit card. Go to www.aztaxes.gov and click on the "Make a Payment" link and choose the credit card option. This will take you to a third party vendor site (provider). The provider will charge you a convenience fee based on the amount of your tax payment. The provider will tell you what the fee is during the transaction; you will have the option to continue or cancel the transaction. If you complete the credit card transaction, you will receive a confirmation number. Please keep this confirmation number as proof of payment.

Installment Payments

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 45 when you file, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. To make this request, complete Arizona Form 140-IA and mail the completed form to the address on the Form 140-IA. Do not mail Form 140-IA with your income tax return. You may obtain Arizona Form 140-IA from our web site at www.azdor.gov.

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 45, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 15, 2014. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file.

Sign Your Return

You must sign your return. If married filing a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign even if only one had income. Form 140A is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. If the return does not have the proper signatures, the department cannot send a refund check.

Filing Your Return

Before you mail your return, make a copy of your return. Also, make a copy of any schedules that you are sending in with your return. Keep the copies for your records. Be sure that you file the original and not a copy. To mail your return, use the envelope that came in your booklet. To avoid delays, if you are mailing more than one return, please use separate envelopes for each return.

Where Should I Mail My Return?

If you are sending a payment with this return, use the white address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to:

Arizona Department of Revenue
PO Box 52016
Phoenix, AZ 85072-2016

If you are expecting a refund, or owe no tax, or owe tax but are not sending a payment, use the yellow address label attached to the envelope. If the envelope or label is missing, send the return to:

Arizona Department of Revenue
PO Box 52138
Phoenix, AZ 85072-2138

Make sure you put enough postage on the envelope.

The U.S. Post Office must postmark your return or extension request by midnight April 15. A postage meter postmark will not qualify as a timely postmark. Only a postmark from the U.S. Post Office will qualify. You may also use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the “timely mailing as timely filed” rule.

How Long to Keep Your Return

You must keep your records as long as they may be needed for the administration of any provision of Arizona tax law. Generally, this means you must keep records that support items shown on your return until the period of limitations for that return runs out.

The period of limitations is the period of time in which you can amend your return to claim a credit or refund or the department can assess additional tax. A period of limitations is the limited time after which no legal action can be brought. Usually, this is four years from the date the return was due or filed.

In some cases, the limitation period is longer than four years. The period is six years from when you file a return if you underreport the income shown on that return by more than 25%. The department can bring an action at any time if a return is false or fraudulent, or you do not file a return. To find out more about what records you should keep, get federal Publication 552.

Where is My Refund?

If you e-filed, you can expect your refund within 2 weeks of the date you filed. If you filed a paper return, you can expect your refund within 12 weeks of the date you filed. You can check on your refund by visiting www.azdor.gov and clicking on “Where’s my refund?” If you have not received your refund within the noted time frames, you may call one of the numbers listed on page 1 of these instructions. Before you call, be sure to have a copy of your 2013 tax return on hand. You will need to know your SSN, your filing status and your 5-digit zip code.

Contacting the Department

Your tax information on file with the department is confidential. If you want the department to discuss your tax matters with someone other than yourself, you must authorize the department to release confidential information to that person. You may use Form 285 to authorize the department to release confidential information to your appointee. See Form 285 for details.
